

Mahindra
Rise.

At the forefront of our drive in innovation and technology is Ulhas, who leads one of our largest business sectors, Information Technology, and works with our Presidents, CEOs and R&D heads across the Group to ensure that all our companies are in sync and up-to-speed with the latest developments in technology. Ulhas also serves as a Director on the boards of several of the Group's technology-driven companies.

Ulhas presides over one of Mahindra's largest business sectors - the IT sector, comprised of three companies. In August 2010, he was appointed Group CTO to coordinate our investments in cutting edge technology, with a special focus on the medium to long term.

Ulhas earned his Bachelor's of Technology in Mechanical Engineering from IIT, Madras and his MBA from the Harvard Business School.

His career began with a series of successful stints at GKN Automotive USA, where he was Director of Finance; he later joined GKN Invel Transmissions, India as General Manager - Commercial. He also worked with Standard Batteries as Vice President - Industrial. Ulhas joined the Mahindra Group in 1992 as General Manager of Corporate Planning, working his way to the top to become the President of the IT sector in 1999.

Ulhas is a Director on the boards of Tech Mahindra, Bristlecone, Mahindra Engineering Services, AT&T Global Network Services (India) among others. He is also the man behind the Mahindra Strategic Innovation and Research Fund, the Corporate Venture Capital activity of the Group. As the Group CTO, Ulhas works with Sector Presidents, CEOs of Group companies, and R&D heads to determine what contribution technology can make to their strategic plans, liaise with universities and global R&D centres, and invest in key technologies.

Ulhas is a member of the Managing Committee of the Harvard Business School (India) Research Centre, on the Board of Governors of Mahindra United World College of India, and a trustee of the K.C. Mahindra Education Trust and Mahindra Foundation.

When not dealing in bits and bytes, Ulhas can be found listening to music, reading, or exploring the latest tech gadgets. He lives in Mumbai with his wife. They have one son.
