CHENNAI: FirstChoice, India's first and only multi-brand used car company promoted by Mahindra & Mahindra, HDFC and Sah & Sanghi, will be organising a grand used car mela where a variety of certified vehicles will be displayed.

The grand mela will be held on September 22 & 23, 2007 at St.George Anglo-Indian Higher Secondary School ground in Chennai .This mela will offer a varied choice for those on the lookout for a quality used car, right from the Maruti 800 to high end luxury cars, for sale.

This mela is also an opportunity for customers to sell their existing cars. Trained personnel present at the event will conduct a thorough check of the vehicle and ensure that the best price is determined for their car. The grand mela will serve as a one-stop shop for all the car related needs of a consumer. Apart from used cars, customers can avail of used car loans, car accessories and insurance.

FirstChoice being the only multi-brand used car outfit in India presently hosts 80 outlets and is introducing more stores in key markets. The first, FirstChoice multi-brand car Super Store was inaugurated in Mumbai recently and these stores have the capacity to display 200 cars at a time. The company has planned a phased introduction of such stores in key cities. The organization has employed around 500 technically skilled people to evaluate purchased cars, refurbish them and prepare them for a value-for-money selling proposition.

About FirstChoice
