Aligns with Rajasthan Govt's broader focus on improving educational infrastructure, expanding digital learning and developing skills of the youth

Jaipur, October 29, 2025 – Mahindra World City Jaipur Ltd. ('MWC Jaipur'), a joint venture between Mahindra Lifespace Developers Limited (MLDL) and Rajasthan State Industrial Development and Investment Corporation (RIICO), today inaugurated a new phygital library at the Reserve Police Line, Chandpole, Jaipur. The facility was dedicated to the citizens of Jaipur by Shri Ajitabh Sharma, Principal Secretary – Energy; in the presence of Shri Sachin Mittal, Commissioner of Police, Jaipur; and Shri Amit Sinha, Managing Director & CEO, Mahindra Lifespace Developers Limited.

The library aligns with the Rajasthan Government's broader initiatives to expand educational infrastructure, nurture digital learning, and enhance youth employability by supporting preparation for various competitive and government examinations. Developed under Mahindra World City Jaipur's

CSR program, the phygital library - combining both physical and digital learning resources will primarily serve police personnel and their families, while also remaining open to the public. It is expected to benefit over 5,000 citizens over time and will house books across subjects including Science, Mathematics, Arts & Literature, Competitive Exams, Skill Development, and Fiction/Non-Fiction. The facility is also integrated with the National Digital Library of India (NDLI), an initiative of the Ministry of Education, Government of India, developed by the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) Kharagpur. NDLI provides access to millions of digital resources including books, journals, articles, theses, videos, and simulations across diverse disciplines making quality educational content accessible to students, teachers, researchers, and lifelong learners alike.

Shri Ajitabh Sharma, Principal Secretary, Energy, Government of Rajasthan, said, "This initiative exemplifies the power of public-private collaboration in driving social progress. By enabling access to learning resources for police personnel, their families and the larger community, it strengthens the foundation of inclusive development."

Shri Sachin Mittal, Commissioner of Police, Jaipur, said, "We deeply appreciate this thoughtful initiative. The library will serve as a meaningful space for study, learning, and personal growth for police personnel and their families"

Shri Amit Kumar Sinha, Managing Director & CEO, Mahindra Lifespace Developers Limited, said, "We commend the Government of Rajasthan's

continued focus on educational access. This collaboration with Jaipur Police underscores our shared commitment to building inclusive and sustainable communities through education and empowerment."

The library is part of Mahindra World City (Jaipur)'s ongoing CSR initiatives focused on education, health, environment, and skill-building. Notable initiatives include Hunnar, which has empowered 3,294 youth through 13 vocational courses since FY 2009–10, promoting livelihoods, especially among women, through training in beauty and wellness, tailoring, and other employable skills. MWC Jaipur has also partnered with Tarun Bharat Sangh (TBS) for a Water Conservation and Retention project to promote sustainable water management in nearby villages. The initiative includes rainwater harvesting, construction of 16 farm ponds and 11 water tanks across 10 villages, conserving over 44 crore litres of water annually. This conserved rainwater is used to irrigate arid land and initiate agriculture on fallow land where cultivation of crops has been historically impossible, thereby enhancing agricultural productivity and supporting environmental conservation. Other initiatives include Green Guardians, which promotes energy efficiency through LED installations in over 7,000 rural homes, and Mahindra Hariyali, which supports sustainability through the plantation of nearly 55,000 trees in government-approved forest and rural areas.
