Commenting on Q4 F26 and FY26 performance

Dr. Anish Shah, Group CEO & Managing Director, said, "FY26 has been a defining year marked by strong execution and breakthrough performance across several Group companies, despite geopolitical headwinds & several disruptions through the year. Auto & Farm further strengthened their leadership, supported by sustained customer demand for our differentiated products & operational discipline. TechM reported healthy traction in key new deal wins despite a challenging global environment. MMFSL pivoted to growth on the back of stable asset quality. Our Growth Gems have demonstrated significant momentum. The Group is well poised to accelerate in these uncertain times."

Mr. Rajesh Jejurikar, Executive Director & CEO (Auto and Farm Sector), said, "In Q4'FY26, the SUV Revenue share increased by 60 bps YoY, retaining the No 1 position. M&M is now the 5th largest exporter for PV + CV in F26. Tractors gained 90 bps in Q4 YoY, with a full year market share of 43.6% gaining 30 bps. Tractors achieved highest ever billing of 5 lakh+ in FY26. The market gains have been achieved by delivering strong margin performance."

Mr. Amarjyoti Barua, Group Chief Financial Officer, said, “Despite a challenging macro environment, the Group delivered strong performance in FY26, with PAT growth of over 30%, reflecting the underlying strength of our portfolio. Strong cash generation during the year has reinforced our balance sheet, providing flexibility to fund future growth initiatives in line with our strategic priorities. Reflecting this performance and our continued focus on long-term value creation, we are pleased to announce a dividend increase of 30%.”
